Helping Small Businesses Find, Win & Perform on Government Contracts

About Maine PTAC

We equip businesses with the training and tools they need to thrive in the government contracting marketplace.

As part of a nationwide network of procurement technical assistance centers, our counselors have access to a wide range of resources that help you find, win and perform on government contracts. We are the link between buyer and supplier; our services are free, confidential, and easy to use.

This Procurement Technical Assistance Center is funded in part through a cooperative agreement with the Defense Logistics Agency.
